Supposed Murder of a Boy.

CHICAGO, ILL., January 22.—A special dispatch from Dubuque, Iowa, to the Tribune says: Great excitement prevails at New Hampton, Iowa, over a supposed hormurder. An Adventist rible named Elder Buck resides near there, and makes a living by revealing secrets, which, he says, are confided to him by spirits. One day last fall a neighbor, hearing screams from the house of Buck, and seeing his wife wringing her hands in agony, looked through the door, and saw Buck beating his young son who was tied to the bed. Since that time the boy has been missing, and, as Buck belongs to the same class of religious fanatics as Freeman, of Massachusetts, it is believed that he sacrificed the boy.
